Koester will find that the fact that a negro is appointed to office by a Democrat instead of Republican does not make such appointment agreeable to the white people of South Carolina.

The Bishop, whenever he came to South sermon he preached there on the talents, he related that it was while going to a tending a meeting at the church that he was first brought under conviction. On the way home he would go into the woods and pray; and while he could never place his finger on the exact time and place when his soul first rested in God, it was during this season of revival that he first found his Saviour.

On these visits, besides preaching at Salem, he always preached at Honey Ford (colored) Baptist church. It was a high day there when "Marse Bishop was a-comin'." It was his delight to stroll through the woods near his old home, where he would always cut a walking stick. On one occasion he and Major Hutto were taking their quiet stroll, carrying with them the youngest son of the latter, a mere boy. Having even more than the average boy's love for tricks, and having little interest in their conversation, the boy began to think what a joke it would be, when the Bishop had all of his weight on one leg, to fetch him a blow just behind the knee and bring him to the ground. No sooner thought than plans began to take shape to carry out the scheme. Quietly the little hand began to extricate itself from the Bishop's great grasp. But he unconsciously balked the plot against his episcopal dignity several times by 'tightening his grip on the restless hand. But they were admiring. "You rude boy, said the father, breaking off a gum switch ngly up to see what was coming, and, the moment had come. All the Bishop's weight was on the left leg, snakelike the little hand extricated itself, and fetched the Bishop a sudden and vigorous thrust behind the toggle-joint of the knee. Down came the heavy form of the Bishop on his knees at the root of the great tree 'you shall pay for that." But the great arms of the Bishop had encircled the form of the audacious boy, who peeped pleaddrawing him between his legs, he said 'No, David, you must not whip him.' That boy is now one of the members at Salem, and is one of the few men who have knocked down a bishop.-Rev.

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901.

Ever since the first appearance of my menses they were very irregular and I suffered with great pain in my hips, back, stomach and legs, with terrible bearing down pains in the abdomen. During the past month I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and I passed the monthly period without pain for the first time in years.

Nannie Davis.

What is life worth to a woman suffering like Nannie Davis suffered? Yet there are women in thousands of homes to-day who are bearing those terrible menstrual pains in silence. If you are

WINE OF CARDU will bring you permanent relief. Console yourself with the knowledge that 1.000,000 women have been completely cured by Wine of Cardui. These women suffered from leucorrhoea, irregular menses, headache, backache, and bearing down pains. Wine of Cardul will stop all these aches and pains for you. Purchase a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui to-day and take it in the privacy of your home.
